

National Water Policy Congress

Turkey (March 2008)

The Blue Planet Project (BPP) has been invited to hold side events and strategy meetings during Turkey's National Water Policy Congress taking place in Ankara Turkey from March 20-22, 2008.

This event is seminal in helping build the Turkish and global water movements' strategy for opposing the coming 5th World Water Forum (WWF) taking place in March 2009 in Istanbul.
